The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

We will be marking the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity here in Winnipeg from January 18-25, 2025.

“The resources for 2025 have been prepared by the community of Bose, an ecumenical monastery of brothers and sisters in northern Italy, and by the international Week of Prayer for Christian Unity Writing Team. The theme chosen is “Do you believe this?” (John 11:26). 2025 marks the 1,700th anniversary of the first Christian Ecumenical Council, held in Nicaea, near Constantinople in 325 AD. This commemoration provides a unique opportunity to reflect on and celebrate the common faith of Christians, as expressed in the Creed formulated during this Council, a faith that remains alive and fruitful in our time. The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2025 offers an invitation to draw on this shared heritage and to enter more deeply into the faith that unites all Christians.

With the 2025 Week of Prayer for Christians, we are pleased to announce that we have managed to organize several days of events to mark the WPCU here in Winnipeg beginning with a City-wide Ecumenical Worship Service to be held at 7:30 pm on Sunday evening, January 19, 2025, at Holy Family Ukrainian Catholic Church, 1001 Grant Avenue, Winnipeg.

We cordially invite church leaders (i.e. bishops, moderators, presbytery chairs, pastors, etc. and/or their representatives) to take an active part leading the worship during the upcoming City-wide Ecumenical Worship Service on January 19th.” The Committee

On behalf of Father Abel, Nicole Bernardin is preparing to organize sessions to help our youth prepare for the Sacrament of First Communion and the Sacrament of Confirmation. If you would like your child(ren) to take part in these meaningful preparations, please contact her to express your interest.

YOUTH GROUP

Youth Group will be held this Sunday evening, January 12, from 5:30 to 7:30 PM. A pancake supper will be provided, and a goodwill offering of $5 is expected to support the evening’s activities.
